

Vent, I Can't Breathe

You
Want to feel me
Can't defeat me
At your game

You
Buy and sell me
Try to rape me
Of my name

And I want you
To once invert the wrong cause I can't breathe
And I want you

To once admit I'm right

You
Come with something
But it's nothing that I need

You
Violate me want to break me to breathe

You point your finger
I'll play that game
With you I just can't believe things we say
