

Venus In Flames, Fearless

I am the gangrene hiding in your trenches
I am the sand stuck in your eye
I am the hangman looking for a trace of love
Your love

I am the beggar waiting for leftovers
I'll leave a big scar on your soul
I am the hammer nailing down your heart of gold
My gold

I know what you're thinking
Fearless because God is on your side
Fearless because God is on your side

I am your dream and your worst nightmare
I am the white noise in your head
I am an angel praying for a taste of blood
Your blood

I know what you're thinking
Fearless because God is on your side
Fearless because God is on your side

Do you care for me
Because I care for you
Do you care for me
Because I care for you

I know what you're thinking
Fearless because God is on your side
Fearless because God is on your side

I am yours
