

Veronica Glapa, Whatever You are

Whatever you are Im waiting
Whatever you do I know it
Already Im with you
Even when we dont know eachother yet
Nothing is worth more than it
Id give up all I have
And Running
Even on end of world
If I will
Find you there waiting for me
Refrain:
Let this day never gonna fade away
Let heavens make our way like it should be have
Now and forever
Even when a lot is divide us
I know you better than they do
I know you
Better that you do
All I have is once chance to make you hear
What I felt from all these years
You planned your life
On every days and nights
You let to forget
Dont think about what you have lack
I want be here to just Look in your eyes
Even when you leave someday
Even when there is not to be us
Refrain:
Let this day never gonna fade away
Let heavens make our way like it should be
Now and forever
Even when a lot is divide us
I know you better than they do
I know you
Better that you do
Maybe someday I will stand with you, and tell: whatever you are Im with you
