

Versailles, Believe

Some days come closer now,
Burn my eyes out,
Some feelings I have to let go of to withstand,
And then I catch up to my own hands,
Its like weve woken up from a fable we dont understand.

(Believe in me

Ill take you down,

Believe in me,

Youll crawl out.)

And I woke up not sure why,

All I knew inside,

And I woke up from my life,

Its all been so new for you,

For you.
