

Vertical Horizon, Down To You

All these restless feelings, tied up in my head
Hiding somewhere like a bomb beneath my bed
So much silent motion, always spinning me 'round
Twisted up inside this memory-go-round

I believe it all comes down to you
I've been holding on too long again
I believe it's time for you to choose
You've been holding out too long again, so long again

Would you make it better, will you make me more
Will you open up your heart or lock the door
Another double meaning, same old slight of hand
Only sleeping like I'm buried in the sand

I believe it all comes down to you
I've been holding on too long again
I believe it's time for you to choose
You've been holding out too long again, so long again
