

Vex Red, Bully Me

Got something to tell me?
This is fake
Forget compromise
They just complicate

And I go empty again

I don't want sympathy
I'll do it my way
I don't want to listen
To what they will say

I'm much too paranoid

You bully me
You won't beat me
I will be me again

It becomes a habit, a priority
Never will forget it
It's inside of me
It makes me feel ugly
I don't want it to repeat

You bully me
You won't beat me
I will be me again

All this in me
I want to tell (you)

You bully me
You won't beat me
I will be me again (x2)
