

Vic Chesnutt, Wrong Piano

Oberheim, Yamaha, Steinway and the lot
I must have played the wrong piano
'cause it left me with, I don't know what so don't talk to me about mistakes yes we all simply have got to take precautions

I must have played the wrong piano
'cause now I just feel nauseous some sexual turned into some biblicaland then became a game of just trivial pursuit I used to gnaw on every word but now I don't, what's the use

Ruppert Murdock and Larry Flint Bob Guccione and the U.S. mint
I took out the wrong subscriptionand I don't know what I'm gonna end up spending
