

Vice Squad, Defiant

Twisted violence in a saville row suit
Real extremists want you to conform
Dressed for the public, who's he gonna prosecute?
While the government terrorists keep you uniformed

Nobody asked you
But they're going to get you
Nobody asked you

Defiant, defiant
We ain't staying silent
Defiant, defiant
We're gonna win
Defiant, defiant
Doesn't mean we're violent
We ain't giving in

One for the money grabbing everything he can
They've got selfish minds with one sided views
Upright citizen's got to keep his hands clean
The same old system holding back the new
Holding back on you

Got to change your mind
We don't want this
Got to change the world
Well I don't call this justice
