Vicious Crusade, Breath Of Life

(Lyrics by Dmitry Basik & Dmitry Basik & Alex Vertel)

Putting the stakes till the point when I lose. Risking it all till I have to pay dues. Fly real high till the day when I fall. If tomorrow I die - does it matter at all? If I burn then to the ashes I burn. If I do the first step then I never return. I fall in love for the very last time. So what do I lose if tomorrow I die? (Chorus:) Take it all or lose it at once. Taste it all - it can be your last chance. If you got the wings - so why don't you fly? If I live - then I live like tomorrow I die, And I live like I live last day of my life. On top speed, down the fastest highway, Be it heaven or hell that I raise on my way, Till last breath, on the full overdrive I live every single day of my life. (Chorus.) ...And I live like I live like tomorrow I ain't gonna die! While I've got the way to go I ain't gonna stop this show. While I've got the fuel to drive I ain't gonna stop my life.
