

Vicious Rumors, Candles Burn

(G.Thorpe & S.Smyth)

I would walk a mile in your shoes
Even though they're way too small
I would stop the sun for you
And let the candles burn till dawn
Let the candles burn till dawn
I know you've got the love that I need
I know you've got the things that I crave
I know sometimes things fall apart
So I pick up the pieces everyday
All night let the candles burn
All night let the flicker burn
I would give my blood to you
Even though I'm running low
If it's the last thing I do
I'll let the candles burn till dawn
Let the candles burn till dawn
I feel the pressure building, back off
I want it all and that;s not enough
I know you've got no time for mistakes
So I pick up the pieces everyday
