

Vicky Beeching, Everlasting Arms

Come all who are weary, battleworn and weak
Come all of us broken, tired and in need
I for one am weary, lonely and afraid
So let us run for shelter
In the Savior's strong embrace
Come one and all, let us fall...

Chorus:
Into the everlasting arms
I'm running into the everlasting arms
I'm falling into eternity's embrace
Where I'm safe
Here my heart has found its resting place

Here we find our healing
Here we find our peace
Wrapped in Your unfailing love
Surrounded by Your peace
So I for one am letting
All my walls fall down
In this place of safety
This child has finally found
So come one and all, let us fall...

(chorus)

I'm finally home, I'm no longer alone
You surround me, all around me with Your love
And I'm finally home, no longer alone
You surround me, all around me with Your love

(chorus)
