

Vigil, Whistle In The Yard

Who rides trains

I know but I don't think I should tell you

Why ride trains

Ok, but it gets kind of confusion

People take trains every day and go into work and work so hard so that they can pay to ride home

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

Whistle in the yard

Whistle in the yard

Do you see the boxcar

Beneath the redly burning sky

Beside the tanker

The disheveled old man stands aside

Well, its purpose is to transport the gas to get the money for the gas that all the railroad needs to fu

And other dying breeds

Dying breeds

Dying breeds

Dying breeds

Dying breeds

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

Whistle in the yard

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

I can hear a whistle

Whistle in the yard

Whistle in the yard

Whistle in the yard

Whistle in the yard

Whistle in the yard
