Viktor Vaughn, Popsnot

It last longer if take a picture It Viktor the slickster

I pick her

Sips Schlitz malt liquor

Still up in the mixture like a fixture

Y'all seen the sticker with the sick fillin

Vik sta

He stacks chips by any rich way

And keep black lips fuck what any bitch say

It ain't no time for no tip or tatt

Y'all better aim for the head

Just don't hit the fitted hat

Wondered since time ago it's just time to go

As for right now though

The hour show rhyme flow

He got more of those and lines for dime hoes

And act fancy

Wit more clothes than Delaney

Don't let him house you out on Houston

Or catch you downtown on Broadway browsing

Whoever got the most bags get followed

Give it up or get you in the old hag hollow

Smash

It Viktor the slicksta

It's like limbo

how low can you go

Vee go lower than your bimbo panty hose

Damn yo

I say that's pretty damn low

In the city streets with more ammo than Rambo

Hambo

Y'all don't want Vee in it

Make the coolest cat piss his Cooqi in a minute \Box

When he blow and get ballin at the top slot

Twenty G's a head for whoever's calling cop shot

Kack, kack, kack, kack

Popsnot

Tender headed

Get they wig split wit folk sheen

V manufacture gun cleaning kits for poe dean

Party people ask him how you so mean and still quiet could it be the codine in your diet

I'm like what I look like a doctor

Let the pork stop I got the clear meat the vodka

Cork tops step up to hustle like the new guy

Gun busting and drugs the penalties to high

Make you wonder who they speak for it's only one side benefiting off the street war

And he skeet galore just to make ya badder

Many gone stab they own man up like Jacob ladder

I still worry when I'm out on the hop hot

Realer ill flurry that might pop ya knot

I feel that Bill Murray get more run then the whop got

Shop for a yacht

Klackup
