

Viktoria Tolstoy , Love Is Real

If we meet again
I'd tell you how i feel
I'd tell you from the start
I'd tell you love is real

How everything we say
And everything we do
Has been preordained
To bring true love to you

Nothing else is pure
Nothing else is right
You will know for sure
Once you've seen the light
