

Vinx, Do Ya

In the middle of finding someone new
Like you
I'm having trouble cause no one else
Will do
Other girls just don't understand
Why they never seem to be
Quite enough for me
Guess I'm still missing you

I find myself wandering through the streets
Alone
Go see a movie get a bite to eat
On my own
Waitresses they keep asking me
Why I'm always by myself
It's just me and no one else
Guess I'm still missing you

Do ya think it's possible
Don't you believe in miracles
Do ya... Do ya
Don't ya think it's possible
Do you believe in miracles
Do ya... Do ya

Girl I've been thinking bout what I'm gonna do
Bout you
Still not believin' that what we had
Is through
Got to be a way for me
To let my feeling show
Let you know
I'm still missing you

Do ya think it's possible
Don't you believe in miracles
Do ya... Do ya
Don't ya think it's possible
Do you believe in miracles
Do ya... Do ya
