What's the story?
Where do I go, I gave my life to you
Precious reasons, expressions in your face
It's written all over you
Everything you say and do

What was I supposed to do?
What was I supposed to say?
Where was I supposed to go?
What am I supposed to know?
What was I supposed to do?
What was I supposed to say?
Where am I supposed to go?
Where was I supposed to know?

What's the meaning?
The dreaded feeling
The reason's you don't want me
Oh, do you remember me
Do you remember?
How you used to feel for me
Where do I go from here?

What was I supposed to do?
What was I supposed to say?
Where was I supposed to go?
What am I supposed to know?
What the hell was I supposed to do?
