Virgin Steele, The Spirit Of Steele

[Music and lyrics: De Feis]

Lords of light, cold lords of darkness Behold the power I now pass over My son this steele, is life and death and spirit...

From my hands into your hands The true sword of kings I now pass on My father's father wore it And thy father bore it Saviour of kings Salvation rings Wield it in strenght, in pride and honour forever...

Take my hand, we'll leave this land Far, far away, Asgard awaits Gods and angels call us from the bridge of time Homeward we ride into the sea When life is done, my name will live on... Forever, forever...
