

Vision Divine, Of Light And Darkness

Here I am, faced to you
Tell me now whatever could I do?
(Is than now the time to go?)

Today I wear a face born in the falling rain
And all I need is her shape
(Where are you now?)

Remember what I said:
Don't ever lose your faith
When a love is true there is no end...

Here I lay; out of the window
Another star is falling,
Another man is dying...

God, I hear an angel knocking to my door:
He comes to wash my sins away
He comes to call my name

Remember what I said:
Don't ever lose your faith
Now I say one day we'll meet again...

(Girl:) Come to me, now you see
There's no end, there's no pain...

Remember what I said :
Don't ever lose your faith
Now I say one day we'll meet again...

Far away, she's waiting there for me...
(Girl:) Far away, he's coming here to me...
Far away, we'll start a new life... Forever
Dreamin' on, dreamin' on forever...
Dreamin' on, dreamin' on forever...
Dreamin' on, dreamin' on forever...
