Vision Divine, Of Light And Darkness

Here I am, faced to you Tell me now whatever could I do? (Is than now the time to go?)

Today I wear a face born in the falling rain And all I need is her shape (Where are you now?)

Remember what I said: Don't ever lose your faith When a love is true there is no end...

Here I lay; out of the window Another star is falling, Another man is dying...

God, I hear an angel knocking to my door: He comes to wash my sins away He comes to call my name

Remember what I said: Don't ever lose your faith Now I say one day we'll meet again...

(Girl:) Come to me, now you see There's no end, there's no pain...

Remember what I said : Don't ever lose your faith Now I say one day we'll meet again...

Far away, she's waiting there for me... (Girl:) Far away, he's coming here to me... Far away, we'll start a new life... Forever Dreamin' on, dreamin' on forever... Dreamin' on, dreamin' on forever... Dreamin' on, dreamin' on forever...
