

Vision Divine, Send Me An Angel

Oh, God where have you gone?
Why did you leave me all alone?
I'm slowly dying...

The traitor stabbed my back
So what I ask you know it's to give me a chance
To get my revenge.

Just send me an angel from the sky
To dry my tears of pain
An all the blood I shed today
Won't be in vain!

I'm still reminded of his face
How he came to me with all his grace...
...the Devil's kiss

He promisses gold an peace
And all the things I always dreamt for years
And now I lie here...

Just send me an angel from the sky
To dry my tears of pain
An all the blood I shed today
Won't be in vain!

Until the light embrace my soul
until you come
To give me rest...

Tonight I'm here
Before my wings (will) fall broken
Please fly to me
Give me a new reason to live...

Just send me an angel from the sky
To dry my tears of pain
An all the blood I shed today
Won't be in vain!
