

Vital Remains, In Infamy

hail to the fallen ones praise our fallen ones they walked with the darkness they lived through pain and suffering no regrets...steamroll right through the herde never looking back through their veins flows the blackest of blood...heathens arise sweep forth the sickle of abomination continue their murderous fury ripped from our hands hear the cries of those left behind full force through the storm of retribution though life was cut short your memory will carry on remember the fallen through celebration of the human kings look towards the sky that is where I'll never be walking the path of the wicked their deeds shall live in infamy
