Volbeat, Maybelenne I Hofteholder

Saturday I love you like gold Not like the monday, you passed like a ghost The fire killed you like a motherless child I saw you at sunday at Barbara Hotel oh oh oh oh- oh babe エm so sorry And nowhere to go

Could scream like a pig, Could bark like a dog Just to get attention as & amp;#65396;m chasing you down the hall oh maybelin youve been so lonely Got the fire burning as I`m smoking you out again Still all the leaves keep on falling until I see you dancing on the table 45 again

See her dancing for the young wolves oh oh Maybellene i hofteholdere Could you be the only one oh I beg you to come home Dance forever my only one

Could scream like a pig, Could bark like a dog Just to get attention as Im chasing you down the hall oh maybellene youve been so lonely Got a fire burning as I smoke you out again

See her dancing for the young wolves oh oh oh Maybellene i hofteholdere

See her dancing for the young wolves oh oh Maybellene i hofteholdere Could you be the only one oh I beg you to come home
Dance forever my only one

I flicked the switch at monday night Oh Maybellene Im so sorry that I didnt see it comming and the sky is filled with prayers oh baby Im so sorry I was blind
