

Voltaire, Out Of Reach

You'll burn my flag
You'll crash my car
You'll kill my cat
You'll break my balls You'll watch my cities fall but not tonight

You're the devil's own You'll cheat and lie and you won't stop until you stole the glimmer from my eye
but not tonight
Cause i won't let you i know you want to
but not with me
Its all so clear to see you can try to destroy me but not tonight cause i won't let you through you can fight if you like some other time you'll find i'm out of reach your words can't hurt me i'm out tonight

You'll burn my flag
You're my demise
You'll orchestrate my fall YOU'LL BURN MY BRIDGE
you'll kill my cat
You'll scale my castle wall to get to me You'll break my will you'll sell my soul You'll take my heart and replace it with a gaping hole and step on me

i won't let you
i know you want to
your words can't touch me i'm out tonight my heart's divided yes surrender would be nice to just lay down my sword and sheild

by the flowers
but i know that you lie in wait tonight
But i won't let you
you can fight if you like you can scale any wall YOU'LL DISCOVER THAT OF anything at all your words can't hurt me your words can't touch me
