

Vomitory, Eternity Appears

Music: T Gustafsson, Rundqvist

Lyrics: Rundqvist

Trapped behind enemy lines

Alone crawling through mine fields

A breath of pain, heartbeats echoes

Blood streams, the mind screams in panic

Flesh ripped apart, skin boils in pain

Where bullets has eaten the flesh

Skin destroyed by barbwire

Leaves a trail of blood

The last second alive

Last for an eternity

Wounded in the flesh

Intestines start to fall out

Sound of enemies approach

Panic, no escape from death

Isolated from the others

No help is near

Take as many enemies

Along when death approach

The last second alive

Last for an eternity

An endless suffering

Death will appear

Left in enemies control

A bullet eats through the head

The last second alive

Last for an eternity
