

Waking Ashland, Change

Do what you want
Just as long as you don't get caught
You'll always know
But that's not how you were taught

See I don't know if you should come back to your home
It's not what she would have wanted

You're never gonna stop
Letting people down unless you change
Yeah, it's easier just to stay the same
If they don't wanna let you, I'm not gonna make you

All that we gave never seemed to be enough
To fill in the space that grows as time gets tough
Letting its go wouldn't be the end of it all
It's harder to start over

You're never gonna stop
Letting people down unless you change
Yeah, it's easier just to stay the same
If they don't wanna let you, I'm not gonna make you change
Yeah it's easier just to stay the same
If they don't wanna let you, I'm not gonna make you

Breaking out, say hello to all the friends that you forgot about
Same old routine, if you don't wanna break it, I'm not gonna make you change
Yeah it's easier just to stay the same
If they don't wanna let you, I'm not gonna make you change
Yeah it's easier just to stay the same
If they don't wanna let you, I'm not gonna make you
