

Walls Of Jericho, Moment Of Thought

Why cant you see?
Why wont you stop?
You are going down
Does your life stand for anything
Ask yourself this
They watch you fall
Question friendship
Betrayed by the ones that you hold close
The ones that can lie to your face
With no sorrow, with no remorse
There is no tie
That binds moment of thought
Now you have gone too far
You are the one at stake, you are at fault
Why cant you see?
Why wont you stop?
You are going down
Does your life stand for anything?
You are the one at fault
No more time to waste
Do not give them satisfaction
Do not give them the best of you
