

Waltari, Connection

Connection, what's the matter with you baby
Connection don't explain, don't need your "maybe";

I wanna feel your head
but please, do let me go you've got nothing to show I wanna leave this place if you are on the way to hell with misery

Connection, sure I need the breath of danger Connection but sometimes I feel you are a stranger

I wanna feel your head
I'd like to see your mind but you are locked inside

You wanna stay in-bed alone with just yourself to become nothing else

You wanna hide-away
maybe you're "fater's son";
the connection is gone you never pass it on you shitty lunatic your place: another brick

Spectric, electric lightinig, atomic feeling I'm here to burn
facing, atomic feeling
I don't like hiding, I wanna learn

Connection, only speaks when I am sleeping Connection, tell your story 'till I am weeping

Spectric, electric lightinig, atomic
feeling I'm here to burn
facing, atomic feeling

Reeling, your brains have feeling you are returning into your shell silence, sometimes like violence nothing is moving - stability!

Connection, don't explain, don't need your "maybe";
Connection, what's the matter with you baby
Connection, what's the color today, babe?
