

Walter Egan, Make It Alone

There's nobody waiting to hold you tonight
Losing your love's like losing your life
She taught you a lesson, but you should've known
That all you can do is make it alone
It's so easy wishing, but so hard to find
A person to love for such a long time
But don't be discouraged, when your love is gone
Just take my advice, and make it alone
Love is never guaranteed
And sometimes never true
Love is just a place to be
When it's there for you
Now what's that you're saying? She left you to cry
You just can't believe her love was a lie

But don't be downhearted, your life is your own
Believe in yourself, and make it alone
Love is never guaranteed
And sometimes never true
Love is just a place to be
When it's there for you
Make it alone
Make it alone
Oh, oh, I'll make it alone
Oh, oh, I'll make it alone
Oh, oh, I'll make it alone
Oh, oh, I'll make it alone
Oh, oh, I'll make it alone
Oh, oh...
