

Walters and Kazha, Another creep

Im stucked in the moment
In middle of nowhere
My heart is so broken
My eyes arent open
If this is a place you wanted to take me
Ill better go back dont try even force me
Ive had enough of your lies in my life
To start to scream
I wanna be
More than just
Another creep
In your ZOO
I wanna find the true you
Right in you
I just wanna know
If there is any heartbeat
Or youre trying to show me
That Im just a dead meat
If this is a place you wanted to take me
Ill better go back dont try even force me
Ive had enough of your lies in my life
To start to scream
4x
I wanna be
More than just
Another creep
In your ZOO
I wanna find the true you
Right in you
I wanna find the true you
Right in you
