Wanda Jackson, Box It Came In

My clothes are all ragged my goodwill coat's not the best And I'm a walking on cardboard in my last dollar dress I looked in the closet for my wedding gown But the box that it came in was all that I found He took everything with him that wasn't nailed down Bet he's got a new sweetheart to fill my wedding gown But somewhere I'll find him then I'll have peace of mind And the box he comes home in will be all satin lined (steel) He took everything with him...
