

Warner Mack, Another Mountain To Climb

I got another mountain to climb I gotta get you off my mind
I can't let a heartache get me behind I got another mountain to climb

Well all of my life I been a learnin' you gotta live it day to day
There's gonna be mountains of trouble you gotta climb along the way
And ever since you hold me your love was a burning out
I realized I got troubles I don't know nothing about
I got another mountain...

(steel)

Well I've never known such a hurtin' with any troubles I've had before
I guess I just wasn't ready to see you walk out the door
Sooner or later I'll stop hurtin' it's just gonna take me some time
To make myself start believin' is just another mountain to climb
Well I got another mountain...
I got another mountain...
