

Warrant, Cowards or martyrs

The same old song 'bout how the world'll go on the world we're living in is a commercial bomb shall we break through the wall?
or shall we begin a deadly war?

chorus

say what you think
cowards or martyrs
say what you think?
shall we run or shall we hide? warbinger can't tell me no more lies the persecution of evil is our only chance

soldiers of metal save us now we place our hopes in you god 'll give you the benediction and you'll never ever die
