

Warrant, Die young

Heavy metal is my life, someday i'll be a star sometimes downcast, sometimes high rolling down the road pleasure is the only thing, which satisfy's my needs but the end will come soon i'm gonna have to die, the devil will get me chorus
die young, die young, die young my love of guitar, my love of song makes me feel so strong playing loud, playing fast the show must go on fucking groupies all night long, just see me turning on
chorus
