

Warren Barfield, Somewhere Tonight

Tears are falling
From someone's eyes
Hearts are breaking, yeah
Somewhere tonight
So many people are hurting
And can't see past their pain
But there's still healing in Jesus name

Tears are falling
As someone cries
Hearts are breaking
Somewhere tonight
So alone
Seems like no one cares
But this promise was made to you, Jesus will always be there

CHORUS:
So hold on to Jesus
With all your might
And you will find hope in Him
Somewhere tonight

Tears are falling
From someone's eyes
Hearts are breaking, yeah
Somewhere tonight
Life is a vapor
It's here and then it's gone
But our hope rests in this truth this world is not our home

CHORUS:
So hold on to Jesus
With all your might
And you, you will find hope in Him
Somewhere tonight

Somewhere
Hold on Somewhere
Tears are being wiped away
From someone's eyes
And hearts are being mended
Somewhere tonight
