

Warren Barfield, The One Thing

There was a time when all was broken, The fault was mine
I watched my bridges burning, I had started the fire
I ran out of hope, I ran out of excuses
I ran out of time, I ran into You and learned

Coro: That your love is the one thing that I cant run out of Your love is the one thing thats always been enough
And there is never a time when youre not by my side
Youve proven your love is the one thing that I cant run out of

Such conviction, theres no question that I was being chased
Goodness and mercy, both follow me, I was stalked by grace
I ran out of fear, I ran out of losing
I ran in and found you running to me.yeah

There is never a time when youre not by my side
Youve proven your love, is the one thing
Your love is the one thing

Yeah your love is the one thing

Youre always, always by my side

Your love is the one thing.
