Warren Zevon, Like The Seasons

(Warren Zevon)

I have learned that love can turn Like the seasons And I know you had to go You've got your reasons Still I wish you would stay Tell me why you are going away It hurts me not knowing And I believe that love's light leaves in September But Fall; and all I do is remember Still I wish you would stay Tell me why you are going away It hurts me not knowing How I have wronged you Oh, how I long to hold you again Like summer never ended But winter must fall and I will give all Of my love to someone new For summer must follow too, and you And I have learned that love can turn Like the seasons And I know you had to go You have your reasons Still I wish you would stay......
