

Waterlillies, Take My Breath Away

"Hello again, my love Hello, and from my heart in your hands"
That's how it read

"I long to know your touch
I dream to feel your touch from far away - away" Oh, how it read!

"For 40 days it's been My love, please me hear me say
I need your love as I need my heart
Don't harm my heart

Don't forget that it's me by your side
Don't forget or I'll die Take all of my breath away before you do this

No man knows what I feel inside
No man knows how my strength it grows with each word I send to be held by your eye

At night I lie alone
I hear your voice as it calls
I lie awake
My lady in white

For you I'd grasp the sky
A million stars in my eyes could never describe
my lady in white!"
