

Wayburn Dean, A Thousand Times

A THOUSAND TIMES

(Janae Dean, Steve Reichl, Wayburn Dean)

A thousand times I couldn't see
With all of my uncertainty
I'm blinded by a silent mask of shame
Holding on a fantasy
That I'm the only one I need
I failed you again, again and again
Still you forgive me

Chorus

A Thousand times you've forgiven me with no questions asked
A thousand times you've looked over me and it won't be the last
A thousand times you've provided and you helped me in need
I want to say thank you Father, A thousand times

I filled my heart with emptiness
I'm standing here in loneliness
I hear you Lord, a welcome melody
I submit my life to you
Giving all I've held on to
I failed you again, again and again
But you still love me
