

Wayburn Dean, Grateful

GRATEFUL

(Jay Greene, Wayburn Dean)

I never thought I'd have too many things
Just a pillow for my head and food to eat
I have a lot of friends and family
But for every one of them
There's somebody who's lost their way

I see the woman on the street
I see it in her eyes her hope is weak
I often wonder what she's heard at all
About the kind of love that you can offer her
How many times do I take for granted
All of the beauty of your love

Chorus

I'm so grateful to ya
I just wanna let you know that
Lord I owe it all to ya
I just wanna give you praise and
I'm so blessed each day
That I've come to know you better
I'm so grateful to ya

Think about the wars we tend to fight
Think about the soldiers on the line
The children who are not allowed to pray
There are people who are dying for what they believe
And it's a heavy price to pay
Too many times we forget
All of the freedoms that we have

Bridge

I'm called to
Do what I can to make a
Difference show that I care
'Cause that's what He would do
