

Waylon Jennings, Gone To Denver

I've thought I'd take a trip to Denver and spend a little time
I thought maybe out in Denver I might get you off my mind
No want no want go with me just want to be alone
I might find someone in Denver that can help me carry on Gone to Denver gone to Denver gone to mend a broken heart
Now I was goin' and if I'm goin' I'd better be gone gone to Denver
( guitar )
Well I've known a quiet wild now I've been losing you
And I'd rather might stay here and find out who I lost into Maybe I won't even miss you like I always thought I would I've heard Denver's quite a city and it changed my do me good
Gone to Denver gone to Denver...
Gone to Denver
