

Waylon Jennings, The Dukes Of Hazzard

(VERSE 1)

Just two good ole boys,
Never meaning no harm.
Beats all you never saw,
been in trouble with the law
Since the day they was born.

(VERSE 2)

Straightenin' the curves,
Flattenin' the hills.
Someday the mountain might get 'em but the law never will.
Makin' their wayyyyyy, the only way they know how.
Well, that's just a little bit more than the law will allow.

(VERSE 3)

Just two good ole boys,
Wouldn't change if they could.

(stop) Fightin' the system like two modern day Robin Hoods. (Yee-haw)
