

We Are The Ocean, The Afterparty

How much can you see from across the room?

Switch off the lights to suit the mood.

This party is old now

my attention along with all my hopes have wasted away.

I'll watch you work this room, don't make a move too soon.

Let's go and save the night

we can walk and talk forever

I'll put the sparkle back in to your eyes

just not this time.

It's not fancy dress so stop trying to impress

all the rest with all your fancy clothes.

your attitude's not welcome here, I don't think so.

Let's go and save the night

we can walk and talk forever

I'll put the sparkle back in to your eyes

just not this time.

say my name.
