

Webb Pierce, Crying Over You (1958)

Last night I never closed my eyes to sleep
I spent the whole night crying over you
Today I made a vow Im gonna keep
Yes Im gonna quit my crying over you

Im gonna brush my tears away go out and paint the town
And if you turn up again Im gonna turn you down
Im gonna look around for someone new
Yes Im gonna quit my crying over you

Im gonna brush my tears away go out and paint the town
And if you turn up again Im gonna turn you down
Im gonna look around for someone new
Yes Im gonna quit my crying over you
