

Wedding Present, It's A Gas

The sun's already rising
I guess that's not surprising
Because I find you mesmerizing
We're moving fast
But kissing and caressing
And watching you undressing
Shouldn't be depressing
I know at last

That it's a gas, but my best friend's waiting
So I'm going to pass, but it's so frustrating

I know how you're feeling
Oh sure, you're most appealing
But I'm not double dealing
We're moving fast
You've given me a fever
But I will not deceive her
I'm never going to leave her
I know at last

That it's a gas, but my best friend's waiting
So I'm going to pass, but it's so frustrating

The answer's no, I've got to go, well I told you so,
You won't use me
I couldn't do what you want me to, because I don't love you
You just amuse me

I hope you're not offended
Because I never pretended
I guess this night just ended
I know at last

That it's a gas, I'm not hesitating
I'm just going to pass, it's so frustrating
Because it's such a gas, but my best friend's waiting for me now.
