

Weeping Tile, Pushover

I am so light I get swept up on to the dust pan with dust and when it comes to her
I am a pushover

you're getting in the way (you're getting in the way) you're getting in the way (you're getting in) you're getting in the way (I'd likely let you stay) what could you collect that you couldn't find like a blank cheque already signed da da da you ohh and you coo like a serigate mom da da your real life expression how come

you're getting in the way (you're getting in the way)
you're getting in the way (you're getting in)
you're getting in the way (I'd likely let you stay) and the root of all is thought sat in the sun in the van in the park and fly da da da oh what a loss oh what a find da da driving around looking for an airplane on a sign

I am so light I get swept up
on to the dust pan with dust
and when it comes to her
I am a pushover

you're getting in the way (you're getting in the way)
you're getting in the way (you're getting in)
you're getting in the way (I'd likely let you stay) I'd likely let you
any other time
any other time
