

Weeping Willows, Hold Me

I keep
I keep friends away from me don't say don't say you're in love with me
'cause it hurts
as a child I learned to hide.

Hold me for a while then I'm gonna have to leave life is always black and white when you see through eyes of steel.

Anger
anger is a part of me I've been loyal to stupidity
I need something solid so desperately.

Hold me for a while
I have filled my head with hate right from the start it was too late hold me for a while
disaster flirts with me I feel alive when knuckles bleed.
