

Weezer, 1000 Years

Starry sky, oh starry sky
Tell me if you can
Why do all your favorites fall?
Is this in your plan?

Every hour of every day
She'll await for you
She'll await a thousand years
To save herself for you

Bible man, oh bible man
Tell me if you know
Why do all these strange events
Wreck upon the shore?

Every hour of every day
She'll await for you
She'll await a thousand years
To save herself for you

Her love is like the sea
Corroding endlessly
Every hour of every day
She'll await for you

Every hour of everyday
She'll await for you
She'll await a thousand years
To save herself for you

Her love is like the sea
Corroding endlessly

Her love is like the sea
Corroding endlessly

Every hour of everyday
She'll await for you
She'll await a thousand years
To save herself
To save herself
To save herself
For you
