

Weezer, Modern Dukes (3/8 Version)

Every time that I turn around
I just hear the same old thing
Jerks are trying to ride my back
To the place I could be king

But I'm an asshole
Storm the castle
Burn the bridges
Down to the ground
Take no prisoners
We're just visitors
We don't care about anything

Every time that I turn around
I just head the same old crap
Chicks are trying to grease the wheels
So that they can get laid back

But I'm an asshole
Storm the castle
Burn the bridges
Down to the ground
Take no prisoners
We're just visitors
We don't care about anything

That's the way these modern dukes will think
It's every man here for himself

(solo)

I'm an asshole
Storm the castle
Burn the bridges
Down to the ground
Take no prisoners
We're just visitors
We don't care about anything

And That's the way these modern dukes will think
It's every man here for himself
