

Weezer, Naive

Is this it, are we done?
Must we carry on?
Like such fools shameless fools
Is it finally over?
Why when I call must you take so long?
Maybe weeks sometimes months
For you to call me back

You're so naive (you're so naive)
You're so naive (you're so naive)

My friends were right
Should have played it smooth
Should have tried to laugh

Instead of being true

I feel so numb inside
As I rest my head to go to sleep

One more time
Though I know it's wrong
Maybe you should do mine
And everything is fine

Feel so naive (feel so naive)
Feel so naive (feel so naive)
