

Weezer, Prodigy Lover

something is different, something has changed you brought me your letters, theyre not the same

Prodigy lover, play the keyboards drowning that music from me uncomprehending, Im stupefied cause I wrote the rule book, you cant divide

Over and over checking the airways drowning that music from me
you say ok, well both become the age of money over an over checking the air ways drowning that music from me
you say ok, well both become the age of money
uncomprehending, Im stupefied
cause I wrote the rule book, you cant divide
I wrote the rulebook, you cant divide
I wrote the rulebook, you cant divide
(oh no) Im stupefied
(oh no) Im stupefied
(oh no) Im stupefied
(oh no) Im stupefied
